Minutes- Unanimous approval of June and July meeting minutes. July minutes were emailed previously

New recording secretary, Kathy Gean was installed by Carol Westfall.

Treasurer's Report: Emailed, no discussion, Holly went over report and filed it for audit.

Birthdays: 7 birthday wishes this month. Diane Benjamin, Kathy Gean, Patti Schifrin, Diane Shipman, Barbara Zingg, Ann Baugh and Linda Smith.

Old business:

Venue- Kathy Gean updated on a possible venue at the Prescott Seventh Day Adventist Church. Need further discussion with contact. No other updates available.

Regular Items:

Penny Pines-Linda Smith updated on funds. New balance is $18.33. Requested donations.

Garden Gertie- Diane Benjamin did a presentation on a fall list of gardening things to do. Recap will be sent out via Email.

Gardeners Day Out- Update by Mary Ann. A tour of Molly Beverly's 3 acre farm. She is a chef and food activist. This will be held on September 20th at 9:30 at her farm in Chino Valley. Carpool list will be emailed out. Next GDO will be in October at Mortimers Nursery.

Purple Box- Diane Shipman pulled the winner of the Purple Box, Randy Odom is this months winner. Diane Shipman requested more donations for gifts. Kathy Gean will supply Septembers gift.

New Business:

Garden Tour sign-ups update by Robin Borok. Garden Tour is June 4th, 2022. More sign up help needed for all committees except for Brunch. Most of the work is done, just need help on the day of Tour. Advertising needed. Suggested were the various magazines in town such as Prescott woman and Prescott Now.

Stocking Stuffer Bazaar- Update by Robin Borok. Bazaar is slated for Dec 18th at the Armory on Gurley street, unless canceled due to COVID. More items are needed.

Christmas Event- Stephen brubaker discussed ideas such as a video presentation that would be used at the live event or if need be, due to COVID, a Zoom event. He's asking everyone to send to him a short video of greetings and/or gardening experience. Also suggested sharing Christmas recipes. We did an informational show of hands to see how many members would attend a live event and there seemed to be a majority. Video deadline would be October 5th 2021.

Adjourned – By Stephen Brubaker at 2:15 and recorded by Kathy Gean

Kathy Gean then did a canning demonstration that finished up at 2:45
